

Joy Jackson

(American Impressionist Society, Signature Member; New Jersey Watercolor Society)

Exhibitions:

“New Faces,” J.M. Stringer Gallery, Bernardsville, NJ, 2011
Solo Show, the Library Gallery, Palm Beach, 2009
American Impressionist Society Juried Shows 2007, 2008, 2011
E. Bacchus Art Museum Juried Shows: 2005, 2007, and 2009
Mountain Art Shows, Bernardsville, NJ: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003
Solo Show, Peck School, Morristown, NJ: 2000
Somerset Art Association Juried Show: 2000
NJWCS 56th & 57th Annual Open Juried Exhibitions
NJWCS Members Show at the Papermill Playhouse: 1999
Community Arts Association National Open: 1999
Exhibitors Coop Exhibition at Nabisco Gallery: 1999
Allied Artists of America 85th Annual Exhibition: 1998

Awards:

Salmagundi Club's Sixth Annual Sylvia Maria Glesmann Members' Floral Exhibition: First Prize
American Impressionist Society: Honorable Mention 2008
American Impressionist Society: Honorable Mention 2007
A.E. Bacchus Museum Juried Show: Honorable Mention 2007
Somerset Art Association, May 2000: Third Place Watercolor
Forbes Magazine Award: NJWCS 57th Annual Juried Exhibition
Lynn Jordan Peck Memorial Award: NJWCS 56th Annual Open Exhibition

Education:

Workshops with Carolyn Anderson; Kim English; Eric Aho; and C.W. Mundy
Studied privately with Ellie Maurice, AWS
Formal training at Barry University; the Pratt Institute; and the Brooklyn Museum Art School

*Paintings displayed in numerous private and corporate collections.
Currently represented by the J.M. Stringer Gallery in Bernardsville, NJ and Vero Beach, FL

Artist's Statement:

“Using a contemporary impressionist style, my goal is to bring attention to the small moments in time that touch us all and help define our lives every bit as much as the grand events that we often focus on. Whether I’m painting people, places or objects, I try to capture these vignettes and hope that my audience will feel included. I hope my paintings will elicit a personal response from the viewer.”